Forecast for Sunday 29 Jan 2023

Weather: Low cloud, mist and outbreaks of light rain arriving overnight, and lingering early in the morning. Then mid to late morning bright or sunny spells develop as cloud thins, lifts and breaks. However, cloud is expected to thicken and lower again later in the afternoon. Then through the evening outbreaks of light rain will arrive.

Maximum wind: West or Southwest 25 mph, gusting 40mph over the summits through the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops 600m: 60% at first and again between late morning and through the afternoon, otherwise 20%.

Low cloud and visibility: Occasional or extensive base 300 to 600m. Except occasional or extensive cloud, base 700m or above at first and again between late morning and through the afternoon, perhaps decreasing to patches at times. Visibility good or very good around the middle of the day, but moderate to very poor at height early and late in the day.
